

Technology Tip

April 2010

How Social Media Savvy Are You?

We know what you're thinking... "social-what?" There was a time that the only way to get information or connect with people was by reading a newspaper or having a party. Social media tools are influencing the way we communicate and gather information. Take this quiz to see how much you know (or don't) about social media outlets.

1. The second generation of development and design that facilitates info sharing and collaboration on the World Wide Web is referred to as
2. Web log is a
3. Tool to share videos is ...
4. Tool to share photos is ...
5. Collaborative information hubs are called ...
6. Search Engine for blogs is ...
7. Find friends and classmates, meet new people, listen to free music and build playlists, share photos, watch videos on ...
8. A business-oriented site mainly used for professional networking is ...
9. A service that enables its users to send and read text based posts of up to 140 characters posted on the author's profile page and delivered to subscribers is called ...
10. A utility used to conduct live meetings or presentations via the Internet is called a ...

This Technology Tip was proudly provided by the award-winning folks at WaudWare, creators of the Produce Inventory Control System - PICS and WebPICS. Contact: 905.846.9737 - www.produceinventory.com

Answers: 1=Web 2.0; 2=Blog; 3=YouTube; 4=Flickr; 5=Wikis; 6=Technorati; 7=Facebook; 8= LinkedIn; 9=Twitter; 10=Webinar

